HTTP:

persistence connection : single TCP connection to send and receive multiple HTTP requests / responses. as opposed to oppening a new connection for every single request/ respona pair.

HTTP pipelining : multiple HTTP requests are sent on a single TCP connection without waiting for the corresponding responses.

HTTP compression : compress the data before sending it to improve transfer speed and bandwidth utilization.

(HTTP enhancement)